A NOTE FROM OUR PASTOR / UNA NOTA DE NUESTRO PASTOR

Dear Parishioner and Friends,

It was back in the summer of 2017 when Bishop Konderla told me I would be coming to serve in Payne County. At the time, I was living in Tulsa and serving at Bishop Kelley High School and life was good. In the life of a priest, where the Bishop sends a priest is God's will and calls for obedience. After saying goodbye to Tulsa, I moved to Stillwater in January 2018. There was a clear mission: help the people of Payne County encounter Jesus Christ and grow in love of Him.

Before us was the task, well under way before I arrived, of uniting the Catholic community under our new roof. What a blessing it has been to be your pastor for these 6+ years. We've been through a lot. Leaving next week will be incredibly sad. At the same time, I am so hopeful for the future of our parish.

I hope you can join us this Friday night for a going away gathering or next Saturday night and Sunday for receptions after each of the Masses. I leave Payne County grateful for the opportunity to have served here, to have had the opportunity to know you, and to be your priest. I am grateful to God for His love and mercy.

In Christ,

Father O'Brien

Estimados feligreses y amigos,

Fue en el verano de 2017 cuando el obispo Konderla me dijo que vendría a servir en el condado de Payne. En ese momento, yo vivía en Tulsa y servía en la escuela secundaria Bishop Kelley y la vida era buena. En la vida de un sacerdote, a donde el Obispo envía a un sacerdote es la voluntad de Dios y exige obediencia. Después de despedirme de Tulsa, me mudé a Stillwater en enero de 2018. Había una misión clara: ayudar a la gente del condado de Payne a encontrar a Jesucristo y crecer en su amor.

Ante nosotros estaba la tarea, mucho antes de mi llegada, de unir a la comunidad católica bajo nuestro nuevo techo. Qué bendición ha sido ser su pastor durante estos 6 años. Hemos pasado por mucho.irme la próxima semana será increíblemente triste. Al mismo tiempo, tengo muchas esperanzas en el futuro de nuestra parroquia.

Espero que puedan unirse a nosotros este viernes por la noche para una reunión de despedida o el próximo sábado por la noche y domingo para recepciones después de cada una de las Misas. Dejé el condado de Payne agradecido por la oportunidad de haber servido aquí, de haber tenido la oportunidad de conocerlos y de ser su sacerdote. Agradezco a Dios por su amor y misericordia.

En Cristo,

Padre O'Brien

A Reflection on the Gospel

Written by Dominic Egure

Following His Resurrection, Jesus revealed Himself to His disciples, but Thomas was absent. Thomas insisted that he would not believe in Christ's resurrection until he could see Him in person and touch His wounds. This doubt led to him being known as "Doubting Thomas." A week later, Jesus appeared to His disciples again, and this time Thomas was present. His doubt was dispelled, and he professed his belief in Christ.

Nearly two millennia later, Jesus appeared to a Polish nun, Sr. Maria Faustina Kowalska. Jesus disclosed the Divine Mercy Novena to Sister Faustina, instructing her to pray it for nine days, commencing on Good Friday. This meant that the novena would conclude on the Saturday after Easter, the eve of the Octave of Easter. Hence, the Feast of Divine Mercy, Divine Mercy Sunday, was established.

On a day like this, the Divine Mercy Sunday, we celebrate and meditate on the infinite love and compassion of God toward humanity, particularly in the context of forgiveness and redemption. As Pope John Paul II puts it, "Divine Mercy reaches human beings through the heart of Christ crucified." Mercy is compassion or forgiveness shown toward someone who deserves punishment or harm. It involves extending kindness and understanding to others, even when they may not deserve it. God has shown humanity mercy and continues to show us HIS mercy.

Let us go back to the account of the Gospel. Is there a message from Jesus for you? Could it be, "As the Father sent me, so I send you"? How does it make you feel? Like the apostles, is there something you wish to share with JESUS – a vulnerability, a doubt, a faith? As we celebrate the feast of love and compassion, do you feel called to show compassion or forgiveness toward someone who deserves punishment or neglect? As we go about our daily activities, let us trust in the divine presence of God, knowing that just as Jesus appeared to Thomas, His mercy will visit our circumstances too. Let us also ask God for the grace of kindness and understanding towards others, even when they may not deserve it.

Let us pray:

Eternal God, in whom mercy is endless and the treasury of compassion — inexhaustible, look kindly upon us and increase Your mercy in us, that in difficult moments we might not despair nor become despondent, but with great confidence submit ourselves to Your holy will, which is Love and Mercy itself, Amen. (St. Faustina Diary, 1570)

Una Reflexión Sobre el Evangelio

Escrito por Dominic Egure

Después de su resurrección, Jesús se reveló a sus discípulos, pero Tomás estaba ausente. Tomás insistió en que no creería en la resurrección de Cristo hasta que pudiera verlo en persona y tocar Sus heridas. Esta duda le llevó a ser conocido como "Tomás el incrédulo". Una semana después, Jesús se apareció nuevamente a sus discípulos, y esta vez Tomás estaba presente. Sus dudas fueron disipadas y profesó su creencia en Cristo.

Casi dos milenios después, Jesús se apareció a una monja polaca, la Hna. María Faustina Kowalska. Jesús reveló la Novena de la Divina Misericordia a Sor Faustina, instruyéndola a rezarla durante nueve días, comenzando el Viernes Santo. Esto significaba que la novena concluiría el sábado después de Pascua, víspera de la Octava de Pascua. De ahí que se instituyó la Fiesta de la Divina Misericordia, el Domingo de la Divina Misericordia.

En un día como este, el Domingo de la Divina Misericordia, celebramos y meditamos sobre el infinito amor y compasión de Dios hacia la humanidad, particularmente en el contexto del perdón y la redención. Como dice el Papa Juan Pablo II, "La Divina Misericordia llega al ser humano a través del corazón de Cristo crucificado". La misericordia es la compasión o el perdón mostrado hacia alguien que merece castigo o daño. Implica extender bondad y comprensión a los demás, incluso cuando no lo merezcan. Dios ha mostrado misericordia a la humanidad y continúa mostrándonos SU misericordia.

Volvamos al relato del Evangelio. ¿Hay algún mensaje de Jesús para tí? ¿Podría ser: "Como el Padre me envía, así también yo os envío"? ¿Cómo te hace sentir? Como los apóstoles, ¿hay algo que desees compartir con JESÚS: una vulnerabilidad, una duda, una fe? Mientras celebramos la fiesta del amor y la compasión, ¿te sientes llamado a mostrar compasión o perdón hacia alguien que merece castigo o negligencia? Al realizar nuestras actividades diarias, confiemos en la presencia divina de Dios, sabiendo que así como Jesús se apareció a Tomás, su misericordia visitará nuestras circunstancias también. Pidamos también a Dios la gracia de la bondad y la comprensión hacia los demás, incluso cuando no lo merezcan.

Dejanos rezar:

Dios eterno, en quien la misericordia es infinita y el tesoro de la compasión es inagotable, miranos con bondad y aumenta en nosotros tu misericordia, para que en los momentos difíciles no desesperemos ni nos desanimemos, sino que con gran confianza nos sometamos a tu santa voluntad, que es el Amor y la Misericordia misma, Amén.

HEALTH & WELLNESS MINISTRY

April is Child Abuse Awareness Month

There were 14,685 child victims of abuse or neglect in Oklahoma in 2020. Of the 14,685 children, 11,374 were first time victims. The largest age group of victims was children under one, representing 2,435 of the 14,685 cases.

Child Protective Services (CPS) are provided through the Oklahoma Department of Human Services (DHS) to identify, treat and prevent child abuse and neglect. The two purposes of CPS intervention are to protect the safety of children and to provide services to help families with any difficulties that cause the safety of their children to be at risk. Services are provided either through community resources or through DHS. While every attempt is made to preserve the family, if a child's safety cannot be controlled, then court intervention, including removal of the child, may be necessary.

If you believe a child is being abused or neglected, you have a legal responsibility to report it. Reports can be made at any time to the DHS Abuse and Neglect Hotline at 1-800-522-3511. The hotline is available 24 hours-a-day, 7 days-a-week.

For more information, contact Brandi Bishop, RN, Parish Nurse, brandi@sfxstillwater.org

Abril es el mes de concientización sobre el abuso infantil

Hubo 14,685 niños víctimas de abuso o negligencia en Oklahoma en 2020. De los 14,685 niños, 11,374 fueron víctimas por primera vez. El grupo de edad más numeroso de víctimas fue el de los niños menores de un año, que representaron 2.435 de los 14.685 casos.

Los Servicios de Protección Infantil (CPS) se brindan a través del Departamento de Servicios Humanos (DHS) de Oklahoma para identificar, tratar y prevenir el abuso y la negligencia infantil. Los dos propósitos de la intervención de CPS son proteger la seguridad de los niños y brindar servicios para ayudar a las familias con cualquier dificultad que ponga en riesgo la seguridad de sus hijos. Los servicios se brindan a través de recursos comunitarios o a través del DHS. Si bien se hace todo lo posible para preservar a la familia, si no se puede controlar la seguridad de un niño, entonces puede ser necesaria la intervención judicial, incluida la retirada del niño.

Si cree que un niño está siendo abusado o abandonado, tiene la responsabilidad legal de denunciarlo. Las denuncias se pueden realizar en cualquier momento a la línea directa de abuso y negligencia del DHS al 1-800-522-3511. La línea directa está disponible las 24 horas del día, los 7 días de la semana.
